Every time I receive photographs of dogs, I am very content. Even more so because I didn't have any of my own... but received many photographs of dogs, very similar to those in the stories. Thank you much for your support! It helps me a lot.

ABOUT
INUGAMI AWAKENS

Since I began this series, people around the world have deserved to know if I have a dog. And I sincerely answer that I am unfortunately that while I always slept alone I never an apartment, I cannot have any. I don't know why but I cannot stop wanting myself.

I want to tell after you that for the idea behind this manga I took as a starting point an anecdote about my son who was 8 years old at the time. He had found an old dog wandering at the edge of the deepest river bed near our home. He gave it something to drink and eat. And even a name: Kuro. But, that day he saw one fine day and he never saw again.

I remember perfectly that his story hurt me deep in my heart when my son cried. Then I decided to create a dog in a manga for him and to make that dog have super-sensitivity. It was in this state of inspiration that I created the first chapter taking a walk. I changed a little my son's first name to obtain that of the principal character Pumba (his personality also resembles that of my son). To keep in the spirit of those manga I tried to be neither too serious nor too light and I continued to draw the series. I have made four volumes in the nearly two years that I have been working on that manga until

I think that all the volume finished. It will keep me laughing, trying and interested through all the months. Moreover, the whole time, my son do not stop badgering me to know what happens next! And that, that really pleases me.
